NOTICE TO SEAMEN

1. Seamen are informed that this continuous certificate should be produced and handed to the Shipping Master, or Consul when signing Articles of Agreement, so that the engagement column may be filled in and the certificate given into the safe keeping of the Master of the ship.

2. Should the seaman desert or fail to join his book will be deposited with the Shipping Master or Consul at the port where he left the ship, who will retain it for a fortnight from the date of the vessel's leaving, at the end of which time it will be forwarded to the Shipping Master of the port of engagement. Upon the seaman applying for his book it may be returned to him, containing an entry in the discharge and character columns that the voyage was not completed.

3. Should this certificate become defaced or torn or should it get lost the Shipping Master will, on application, arrange for the issue of a duplicate either free of cost or on payment of the fees authorized by the Government, which will be decided by him as he thinks fit.

4. This certificate when filled up, will be renewed for the next higher issue on payment of a prescribed fee.

5. Seamen are warned not to correct, alter, or in any way tamper with the entries on this certificate as they are liable to be prosecuted if they do so.

Note - Should this Certificate come into the possession of any person to whom it does not belong, it should be handed to the Shipping Master, or Superintendent of the nearest office of the Department of Marine Administration, or be transmitted to the Director-General Department of Marine Administration, Yangon.
